

EXPLORING CRITICAL ISSUES

A Common Word: Sharing Sacred Keys to Peace

Together, Muslims and Christians encompass more than half of the world's population. Without peace and understanding between these two powerful religious communities, there can be no meaningful peace in the world. The basis for this peace and understanding already exists: The sacred texts of both Islam and Christianity emphasize the foundational principles of love of the One God and love of the neighbor. Join us for an afternoon of thoughtful discussion on this important topic.

PRESENTATION BY

Akhtarul Wasey, visiting Fulbright Scholar and one of the original signers of A Common Word

WITH RESPONSES FROM

Anas Malik, Department of Political Science

Rabbi Abie Ingber, Office of Interfaith Community Engagement

Jonathan Tan, Department of Theology

CO-SPONSORED BY:
Theology Department
The Theology Club

The Edward B. Brueggeman
Center for Dialogue

To learn more, visit a www.acommonword.com.

*Free and open to the public.
For more information call 513-745-3922.*

Nov.6 at 4:00 p.m.

Schiff Family
Conference Center
Xavier University

